About SSW: The MU School of Social Work (SSW) offers accredited Bachelors, Masters and PhD programs. In 2002, the Journal of Social Service Research ranked the school among the top 25 in the nation, based on faculty research accomplishments. SSW also holds the distinction of being one of only seven schools of social work that is a public, original land-grant, AAU, Doctoral/Research-Extensive institution. The full range of academic programs – BSW, MSW, and PhD – are offered on campus with off-campus programs also available for obtaining the MSW degree. The SSW is administratively housed within the College of Human Environmental Sciences (HES).

About the Department of Psychological Sciences: MU Psychological Sciences is ranked among the top PhD programs in the country with offerings in Clinical, Developmental, Social/Personality, Cognition/Neuroscience, and Quantitative Psychology. The program in clinical psychology is a member of the Academy of Psychological Clinical Science, an alliance of leading, scientifically oriented, doctoral and internship training programs in clinical and health psychology in the United States and Canada. It has been continuously accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of APA since 1958 and is one of just 29 programs achieving accreditation by the Psychological Clinical Science Accreditation System (PCSAS). The Department is administratively housed within the College of Arts and Sciences.

About the College: The College of Education is ranked among the top doctoral granting colleges of education in the country. Today, the College has a student population of approximately 1000 undergraduates and 1,600 graduate students, and over 100 faculty. The College is financially well positioned to invest in innovation. Annual expenditures for externally funded projects are approximately $20 million with funded projects in research, instruction and public service. Our research portfolio has increased significantly in recent years, and is poised for continued significant strategic growth. The College is a leader on the campus and is nationally recognized for its distance and online education programs.

About MU and the Surrounding Community: MU is the oldest state university west of the Mississippi River and the largest of the four institutions in the University of Missouri System. In 1848, MU became the first public university in the nation to open a college specific to teacher preparation. Cultural diversity is an important goal supported by the Department, College, and MU. More information is available on the web at: education.missouri.edu

MU is located in Columbia, a metropolitan community of approximately 130,000 that has been rated by Money Magazine, Men’s Journal and MSN.COM as one of the best places to live in the U.S. MU has a student body of over 35,500, and is designated as a Carnegie Research University with very high research activity. MU is one of only six universities in the U.S. that is both the flagship and land grant institution housing medicine, veterinary medicine, and law on the same campus. As an AAU member institution since 1908, MU is recognized as one of the top research and educational institutions in the nation

This position provides an opportunity to work at a world-class research university in a beautiful and diverse setting that offers a high quality of life. There are numerous opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts and Columbia has been recognized as a bike-friendly community. Both Kansas City and St. Louis are within a 90-minute drive offering the shopping and cultural opportunities of major metropolitan areas. Columbia has a very high quality public school system and provides many opportunities for art, culture and music enthusiasts.
