RESIDENTIAL
Are you looking for a unique, active and fulfilling career without a single boring day?

We are a force for you.

Become A Behavioral Youth Counselor

If you’re creative, laid-back, find humor in any situation, love spending time with young people and want to make a difference in children’s lives, this job is for you. You’ll spend your days (and in some locations, nights) with children up to age 18, providing therapeutic support and guiding them through daily tasks.

We provide:

- The chance to grow professionally and be promoted.
- A supportive work environment.
- Being part of a dedicated team.
- The chance to work one-on-one with children.
- The opportunity to help with treatment planning and case documentation.
- A trauma-informed therapeutic environment.
- Free meals at the campus cafeteria.
- The chance to design therapeutic and life skills activities.

Guide. Care. Teach. Support.

Working closely with a group of children with serious mental and behavioral health issues and/or trauma histories, you’ll get to know each child well, helping them make the most of the individual, group and family therapy they receive.

About Youth Villages

In more than 30 years, Youth Villages has built a reputation as a leader in children’s behavioral health. Our approach to helping children and families find lasting success centers on intensive work with children and families, measuring outcomes, keeping children in the community whenever safely possible and providing accountability to families and funders. We help more than 26,000 of America’s most vulnerable children and families nationally each year. Youth Villages has been recognized by Harvard Business School and U.S. News & World Report, and was identified by The White House as one of the nation’s most promising results-oriented nonprofit organizations.

Prerequisites

- B.A. degree (preferred)
