Let the Journey Begin

Volunteers/Interns Needed: Family Camp Program for Youth on the Autism Spectrum

Are you ready for a life-changing adventure? The Meramec Adventure Learning Ranch is one of the most extensive high adventure bases in the Midwest. Ranch programs are committed to helping individuals and groups discover and capitalize on their strengths and inspire changes in their perspective. Using an experiential approach in conjunction with outdoor and adventure activities, the Ranch helps those it serves focus on keys that lead to the continued development of character, integrity, positive relationships and, ultimately, to making even a greater positive impact in the world around them.

What is family camp?

The family camp experience is designed to be a break from day to day life and an opportunity for the family to make memories together that will last a lifetime. The family will participate in a myriad of activities such as climbing, swimming, canoeing, horseback riding, fishing, survival skills, water adventure activities, and challenge courses, as well as, traditional summer camp bonfires, games, and activities.

What will the volunteers do?

The Ranch is looking for volunteers to give extra support to the families at camp. The role of a volunteer could vary from direct work with the families and going through the activities with them to doing logistical work around the camp. However, we want this to be a fulfilling experience for you as a volunteer, so if you have a preference of how you would like to become involved, please let us know. All individuals who wish to volunteer with children must complete a volunteer application and background screening.

When is family camp?

There are two one-week sessions of family camp. You are welcome to volunteer for one or both.

Family camp session will be July 18-22 and July 25-29.
